

Career education CLPL for education practitioners: National Programme of Events 2023-2024

The following online sessions will be delivered across the academic session from September 2023 through to June 2024 (all sessions will run from 4.00pm – 5.00pm with the exception of those marked * which will conclude at 5.30pm)

Introduction to career education	Introduces career education, sets it in context and explores the benefits that it brings to schools/colleges, educators and learners. There are activities woven throughout to engage the audience in reflection and discussion.
Introduction to embedding skills	Provides a focus on future employability skills, their importance to learners and how these can be integrated into everyday teaching practice in a pragmatic and sustainable way.
Introduction to meta-skills	A focused look at meta-skills and how the Skills 4.0 framework could inform a school's skills framework. There are activities woven throughout to engage the audience in reflection and discussion
Introduction to labour market information (LMI)	Explores what LMI is, where to find it and how practitioners can manageably integrate it into everyday teaching practice.
National CLPL offer for Newly Qualified/Probationer Teachers	In collaboration with Education Scotland, we are offering an online CLPL programme for Newly Qualified/Probationer Teachers who are interested in learning about career education, DYW and skills, and how these relate to current educational priorities.
BIPE Project: uncovering inequalities and bias in education*	This event will give an overview of some recent academic research on socio-economic and ethnic inequalities in education and the role of teacher-student relationships.
